

HIGH PEAK PET FUNERAL SERVICES

The following list of questions is designed to help you make an informed decision about where to have your pet cremated. If the person you are asking the questions of seems to be prevaricating or using misleading terms such as 'separate cremation' or 'separation of ashes' (meaning communal cremation) instead of individual cremation, cold store (meaning freezer) etc, you need to ask supplementary questions of your own to verify that this is the treatment you really want for your pet.

	HPPFS	Your vet
Will my pet be placed in a plastic bag & frozen?	NO
Will my pet be transported along with clinical waste or other animals for disposal?	NO
Does your facility cremate pets on numbered trays or use some other form of separation?	NO
Do only cremate pets completely individually i.e. only one animal placed into the cremation chamber at any one time?	YES
Do you issue a certificate of cremation guaranteeing the ashes are all and only those of your pet and none other?	YES
Will my pet be treated with care & dignity at all times?	YES
Can I transport my pet to your facility myself?	YES
Is the facility a member of the APPCC?	YES
Does the facility closely follow the codes of practice of the APPCC?	YES
Will I be able to inspect the facility before my pet is cremated?	YES
Can I have a priority service so I can get my pets ashes back the same day?	YES
Can I watch my pet being cremated?	YES
Do you 100% guarantee that the ashes I receive are those and all of my pet and none other?	YES	